Did you know? Did you know that in England, a cure for toothache was once bloodletting?

It's true! In the early 1700's, blood-letting in England was a common cure for a toothache. This therapy cost the patient one shilling, and was thought to be more effective when it was done in proper phase with the moon.

Museum to honor veterans with special program Nov. 14

BANDON – The Bandon Historical Society will be honoring veterans with a special program from 11 a.m.-3 p.m. on Nov. 14, the Saturday after Veterans Day.

Admission to the museum will be free all day during regular open hours from 10 a.m.-4 p.m.

The exhibit will feature items from some personal military collections as well as the museum's own collection of military uniforms and artifacts. Museum volunteer Rick Hinojosa is spearheading the event.

Military vehicles will be on display in the museum parking lot. Sergeant Mann of the Coos Bay unit of the Oregon National Guard is bringing a military vehicle and items from the Coos Bay armory. Jim Shipp from Myrtle Point VFW is bringing a collection of vehicles from WW2, Korean War and Vietnam eras.

John Hartman, who has been teaching a fall course on the Civil War at Southwestern Oregon Community College, will share items from his collection of Civil War artifacts. Hinojosa, a Vietnam War veteran, will display WWII items as well as a collection of Japanese swords.

Other collectors will have items on display and the museum will display additional items related to the military service of local veterans.

The free program is open to the public. Area veterans are especially encouraged to attend and share their stories with the museum community.

The Bandon Historical Museum is located at the corner of U.S. Highway 101 and Fillmore Avenue.

Booster Club selling banners

BANDON – The Bandon Booster Club has started a new sponsorship program to raise funds for Bandon School District athletics and activities.

The club is selling sponsorships for 2-by-3-foot banners to be placed at either the high school football field or the high school gym, or both.

First year costs are $250 for a banner at one location and $400 for a banner at both locations. This includes the cost of each banner.

Renewal costs are $225 for a banner at one location and $350 for a banner at both locations.

Renewals include reuse of existing banners. All funds, minus costs of banners and supplies, go directly to the Bandon Booster Club, which in turn uses the money for student activities and athletics. The support is for all three Bandon schools.

The Bandon Booster Club meets at 7 p.m. on the first Monday of each month at Rancho Viejo restaurant at the corner of Highway 42S and North Avenue. Everyone is welcome. Membership is $5 per year.

For more information, contact club president June Hinojosa at 541-290-7592.

SWOCC offers piano concert and master classes

COOS BAY – The music department at Southwestern Oregon Community College announces a piano concert and master class, presented by Peter Gach, to be held from 3:30-5 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 4, in Sunset Hall on the Coos Bay campus.

The concert is free and open to the public and will run until 4:15 p.m. After the concert the master class will commence. No registration is necessary.

Gach is a pianist of wide-ranging musical interests. He holds advanced degrees in music from the University of Arizona and Indiana University, and completed post-graduate studies at the Warsaw Conservatory in Poland. He studied there with the late Jan Ekier, editor of the Urtext Edition of the Complete Works of Chopin. A proponent of new music for the piano, he has premiered works by numerous composers. He is professor emeritus at Palomar College, where he served as both chairman of the performing arts department and artist in residence on piano.

BRAVO and SMART partner to promote literacy at Ocean Crest

BANDON – The Bandon Readers and Volunteers Organization has announced that it will transition the volunteer reading program at Ocean Crest Elementary School to the Start Making a Reader Today program beginning this fall.

After leading the reading program at Ocean Crest for seven years, BRAVO organizers decided to transition the program to SMART in order to take advantage of the organization's statewide network, infrastructure and economies of scale, said Cheryl Brown, SMART South Coast area manager.

"We were thrilled when BRAVO contacted us to partner with them at Ocean Crest to continue the important work they started there in 2008," Brown said. "We appreciate everything the Bandon community has done to help support this much-needed program, and we look forward to continuing their great work in the years ahead through the SMART program, bringing a lifelong love of books and reading to local students."

BRAVO volunteers will continue volunteering with students at Ocean Crest Elementary, providing valuable one-on-one reading support through the SMART program model.

SMART's goal is to serve 60 students this year at Ocean Crest. The SMART program at Ocean Crest will begin running later this month or in early November.

Ocean Crest's new principal, Becky Armistead, has a unique connection to the SMART program, having served as the school coordinator when the program began 14 years ago.

"It is truly a privilege to be back at Ocean Crest and to be part of the return to SMART," Armistead said. "Community involvement in the elementary school is one of many amazing aspects of the Bandon educational experience. I look forward to welcoming more members of our community into the school to volunteer to read with our Tiger Cubs!"

Elizabeth Hewitt, SMART site coordinator, said, "Having volunteered with SMART in the past, I was familiar with the program and felt very comfortable with the change. There are many benefits to being associated with the SMART program, one of them being that I will receive training as a site coordinator and will have access to resources, such as Cheryl Brown, our area manager. I am really looking forward to serving as a liaison for the volunteers and the students."

SMART looks forward to welcoming BRAVO volunteers and other Bandon community volunteers to the Ocean Crest program.

Anyone interested in volunteering with SMART can contact Brown at 541-266-7476 or cbrown@getsmartoregon.org.

Speech Team to present Sweet Speeches on Nov. 12

BANDON – The Bandon High School Speech Team will be primed and ready to grace the stage of the Sprague Community Theater with incredible energy and just plain fun at 7 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 12. Tickets cost $10 for adults and $5 for children/students.

This will be an evening you won't want to miss, said coach Ellen Howard. At tournaments, the team members present their speeches in a classroom in front of a judge and several students from other schools. Sweet Speeches gives the team members the opportunity to work together as a team along with the experience of performing for a large audience.

Performances will include the dual team of Austin Carrero and Dustin Wilson who won the Marshfield tournament with "Pete"; the team of Autumn Moss-Strong and Alex McKay with "Breath Sounds"; the team of Isabel Winston and David Fodrea with "Alice's Adventures with Poorly Cooked Cafeteria Seafood"; the team of Max Underdown and Seven Converse with "All the Great Books (Abridged)"; Eleanor Winston with the dramatic interpretation "Lost"; Kayla Dugan with the humorous interpretation "Here She Is"; Nick Turner with "Vocab Guy"; and David Vincent and Andy Yu with After Dinner Speeches.

"Sweet Speeches is our opportunity to entertain the community, build team unity, and take our performances to the next level," Howard said.

Peace Rock painting

BANDON – Peace Rocks Project invites anyone interested to participate in a peace rock painting gathering that will take place at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Nov.3. Participants may paint rocks, write messages on already painted rocks, or assist in other activities.

Anyone can participate in the Peace Rocks Project on their own or by attending a peace rocks painting gathering held at Unity of Bandon, located on Highway 101, one mile south of 11th Street. All supplies are provided. Call 541-347-4696 for further information.
