Alexis Huyler is treasurer of National Honor Society and is the historian for both student council and the Class of 2014. She participates in band, chorus, and drama club. Lexi also plays volleyball and softball for CV. After graduation, Alexis plans to attend college for nursing, specializing in pediatrics. She is the daughter of Shawn and Lori Huyler.

Brian Fulmer is a member of student council and National Honor Society at CVHS. He plays tennis and basketball and runs cross country. Brian is an Eagle Scout. Brian plans to attend college for engineering. His parents are Dan and Vicki Fulmer.

Hayley Painter, daughter of Clinton and Maria Painter, is a three-sport athlete, participating for the Indians in tennis, basketball, and track. She is a member of the FFA and Spanish club. Outside of school, Hayley has been a part of 4-H and is involved in the Tioga County Fair. She plans to attend college after graduation.

Joshua Nudd is the son of David Nudd and Paula Calkins. At Cowanesque Valley, Josh plays basketball and baseball. After graduation, he plans to serve in the U.S. Army as a combat engineer.

Brandon Whitesell is a three-sport athlete for the Indians, playing football, basketball, and baseball. Brandon also plays summer league baseball. Outside of school, Brandon is a member of the Clymer Fire Department. After graduation, Brandon plans to attend college for heavy equipment or something in the emergency service field. He is the son of Jeff and Andrea Whitesell.

McKenzie Sweet is the daughter of Jamie and Martha Sweet of Knoxville. She is president of the Class of 2014. McKenzie is secretary of the student council and a member of National Honor Society, the history club, and the Spanish club. She also plays tennis for the Lady Indians. McKenzie plans to attend college to earn her bachelor's degree in early childhood education.

Kyle Rice is captain of the CV Varsity Football Team and is a member of the track and field team. He is a member of the band, and serves as treasurer in the FFA. Kyle is a member of National Honor Society and the Envirothon team. Kyle plans to attend tech school for machinist courses for two years, then go to college at Pennsylvania Gunsmithing School for two more years. He is the son of Jason Rice and Darlene Passmore.

Kirsten McNeely is the daughter of Tim and Candy McNeely. She works at the Westfield Child Development Center in the school-to-work program. She has also worked at the school's jog-a-thon to raise money for cancer research. During the summer of 2013, Kirsten traveled to Italy with EF Tours. Her future plans are to get a bachelor's degree and become a registered nurse.

Kaleb Rice is the son of Darlene Passmore and Jason Rice. He is captain of the football and track teams, and an officer in both the band and FFA. Kaleb is a member of the National Honor Society and Envirothon team. He also participates in the drama club. Following high school, Kaleb plans to go to college for engineering and play college football and track.

Courtney Schauer is the secretary of the FFA, and is a member of student council and National Honor Society. She participates in three sports for the Lady Indians—tennis, basketball, and softball. She is also a member of band and chorus. Her future plans include attending college to study occupational therapy. Her parents are Karl and Nikki Schauer.

Torie Burdick is the daughter of Kevin and Gina Burdick. She has been a member of student council throughout high school, and she is a member of National Honor Society. Torie plays volleyball and softball for the Lady Indians. In her spare time, Torie has danced since she was three years old and has participated in the ski and snowboard club. After high school, she plans to attend college, majoring in radiology.

Skyler Schmidt is the son of Amy Potter. He is president of the student council and a member of the National Honor Society. Skyler participates in the CV newspaper, The Arrow, and on the CVTV crew. He also plays tennis. Outside of school, Skyler is a member of the Westfield Historical Society.
