

Today's Theatrical Offerings
OPERA HOUSE—'Boots and Saddle'
BRANDS—'The Grapes of Wrath'

The Arizona Daily Star

Weather Forecast for Today
ARIZONA—Thursday and Friday
TUCSON—SHINERS

VOL. LXXVI. NO. 9

TUCSON, ARIZONA, THURSDAY MORNING, JANUARY 11, 1917.

City Edition

LEGISLATIVE EDGE FEARS SPLIT
Lawson May Be Cited For Contempt

LEAK INQUIRY SUSPENDED
TO DETERMINE IF CHARGES ARE WORTHY OF CREDENCE

Failure of Lawson, Chief Accuser of Officials, to Substantiate Statements May Mean End of Quiz or Its Broadening Out

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—After a two-hour recessive session last night, the house rules committee adjourned until tomorrow without taking final action on Representative Wilson's resolution for an investigation of rumors of a "leak" in advance of President Wilson's state note.

Although most of the Democratic members favor abandoning the whole proceeding with an adverse report on the resolution, a sub-committee was appointed to draft controversial charges against Thomas W. Lawson for use by the committee deciding to report the House flunkey for refusing to give names in connection with rumors he repeated.

MAY BROADEN INQUIRY. When the committee adjourned there was pending a resolution offered by Representative Campbell of Kansas, Republicans, designed to broaden the scope of the inquiry so as to meet Mr. Lawson's objections that because the present investigation was preliminary and limited to a specific "leak" he could not give the names of men who in official life who, he said, he had heard were involved in a scheme for making money out of the stock market on official information. Mr. Campbell said he wanted to "tell Mr. Lawson's hand."

THOMAS W. LAWSON

In spite of the general belief of the committee that nothing has developed in all the testimony heard to substantiate any of the rumors which caused the inquiry, there were indications to night that Representative Campbell's resolution or one similar might be introduced. This would result in recalling to the stand Mr. Lawson, who still is in Washington, subject to the committee's orders.

Heardings were temporarily suspended today after several witnesses had further testimony, at least until the question of broadening the investigation in the event a definite has been reached as to whether Mr. Lawson shall be reported to the house for contempt.

WITNESSES DENY LEAK. At the hearing today Charles Fort, the public printer, testified that he did not recall any conversation with Lawson.

China Threatening Russia For Massacre Of 400 By Cossacks. WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Information received here today indicates an increasingly serious situation between China and Russia over the recent reported killing of 400 Chinese by Cossacks in a spot at Kailin, in the interior province of Sinkiang, or Turkestan.

"WHAT A BEAUTIFUL COUNTRY!" By BRIDNEROFF.

Mother Murders Five Children Then Slays Self

Greeley, Colo., Woman Leaves Note Accusing Husband of Infidelity.

(Special to The Star.)

GREELEY, Colo., Jan. 10.—Returning to the home from work early tonight, Everett Crowler, a farmer residing near here, found the bodies of five children lying in the home and his wife lying unconscious in a field nearby with a pistol in her hand. The children had been shot to death.

Later today Dr. W. P. Allen, of Greeley, received a telephone message from Mrs. Crowler asking him to come at once to the Crowler home.

Neighbors in the home, the Allen encountered Crowler and asked the reason for the call. Crowler said he knew of none.

Neighbors in the home, the Allen encountered Crowler and asked the reason for the call. Crowler said he knew of none.

German Consul and Four Attaches Found Guilty of Fomenting Plots in U. S.

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—Four of the German consul and four of his attaches or employees were found guilty tonight by a jury in the United States district court of having fomented plots to overthrow the government of the United States.

The grand jury reexamined the alleged conspiracy, the latter part of 1913 and the indictments were found February, 1916, and March 2, 1917.

The grand jury reexamined the alleged conspiracy, the latter part of 1913 and the indictments were found February, 1916, and March 2, 1917.

The grand jury reexamined the alleged conspiracy, the latter part of 1913 and the indictments were found February, 1916, and March 2, 1917.

The grand jury reexamined the alleged conspiracy, the latter part of 1913 and the indictments were found February, 1916, and March 2, 1917.

RESOLUTION TO RECORD CAMPBELL RECOGNITION AND PRECIPITATE FIGHT

Resulting Line-Up of Factions Would Seriously Hamper Legislation; No Opinion Expected From Supreme Court for at Least Four Days; Democratic Executive Committee Endorses Hunt, and Then Pauses at Thought of Central Body.

(By Associated Press.)

PHOENIX, Jan. 10.—After a recess of one day in which it was marking time for the supreme court in the mandamus proceedings begun by Thomas E. Campbell against G. W. P. Hunt for removal of the office of governor, the legislature will assemble tomorrow morning at half past ten o'clock.

The more important question of the mandamus application on the grounds of the illegality of the appointment of Hunt as an individual, and not as holder of the party's label.

There are two factions in the legislature, the one headed by Hunt and the other by Campbell. The former is the more powerful governing body of the party.

The more important question of the mandamus application on the grounds of the illegality of the appointment of Hunt as an individual, and not as holder of the party's label.

The more important question of the mandamus application on the grounds of the illegality of the appointment of Hunt as an individual, and not as holder of the party's label.

The more important question of the mandamus application on the grounds of the illegality of the appointment of Hunt as an individual, and not as holder of the party's label.

The more important question of the mandamus application on the grounds of the illegality of the appointment of Hunt as an individual, and not as holder of the party's label.

The more important question of the mandamus application on the grounds of the illegality of the appointment of Hunt as an individual, and not as holder of the party's label.

The more important question of the mandamus application on the grounds of the illegality of the appointment of Hunt as an individual, and not as holder of the party's label.

The more important question of the mandamus application on the grounds of the illegality of the appointment of Hunt as an individual, and not as holder of the party's label.

The more important question of the mandamus application on the grounds of the illegality of the appointment of Hunt as an individual, and not as holder of the party's label.

Copyright © 2017 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.