Marjory Thelma Kuehner Flake

Marjory Thelma Kuehner Flake died July 2, 2012, on her 94th birthday in Snowflake. She was born July 2, 1918, in Guelph, Ontario, Canada, the first of three children born to George Kuehner and Mary Beatrice Willis Kuehner. Her siblings were Lyla and Donald. Her family moved to Kitchener, Ontario when she was a small girl and she spent her childhood there.

Marjory, her sister, and her mother were converted to the LDS church in 1931. She finished high school and worked at the Arrow Shirt factory in Kitchener.

Marjory met her future husband, Fost Wilson Flake in 1937, when Fost was serving as an LDS missionary in Marjory's town. A friendship blossomed between them, and Elder Flake convinced Marjory to serve a church mission as well. She served a mission in California from 1939-1941. Marjory agreed to make a visit to Fost's home in Snowflake en route back to Ontario. The detour turned into a permanent reroute when Fost and Marjory decided to go to Salt Lake City, LDS temple to be married Aug. 29, 1941. Fost and Marjory celebrated 56 years of marriage in 1997 just prior to Fost's passing Aug. 31 1997.

Marjory lived briefly in Flagstaff and Whiteriver, but her adult home was always Snowflake.

Marjory stayed at her father-in-law's home during her husband's WW II Naval service. She and Fost moved to a home south of Snowflake near Silver Creek in 1945. This was their home until 1988 when they built a home one-quarter mile away. The family worked together in ranching and farming. Marjory worked as a homemaker and partner to her husband for their whole married life, serving for 36 years as co-owner and manager of Snowflake Meat Packing Company.

Marjory and Fost served a mission in the Leeds, England Mission for the LDS church from 1978-80. They also served in the Mesa temple for many years. Marjory was an active member of the LDS church. She served in many teaching positions, music, and leadership areas.

Nine children were born to Fost and Marjory: Jordan Dee

(Jean), Marie Welch (Jack), Barry (Vernell), Lon James (deceased), Joy (deceased), Karen Packard (Bruce), Gaylan (Donna), Bonna Smith (Bill), and Rand (Dona). She is also survived by 34 grandchildren and 92 great-grandchildren.

A visitation will be held from 6-8 p.m. Friday, July 6, at Owens Livingston Mortuary in Snowflake. Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. July 7, at the Snowflake Stake Center, 9th South 2nd West with additional visitation one hour prior. She will be laid to rest at the R. V. "Mike" Ramsey Cemetery in Snowflake. Her family expresses gratitude to caregivers at Webb's Assisted Care Home in Snowflake and Hospice Compassus; also, many thanks to the extended family, friends, and neighbors for the many prayers and concerns.

Rosemary Harris

Rosemary Harris, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend to many died Thursday, June 28, 2012, in Pinetop. Rosemary was born in Texas and spent many years on the farm, helping JR and raising three children: Gary, Sharon and Mark. JR left farming and went to work in the oil-fields around Artesia, N.M.

After five years there, JR and Rosemary moved to Farmington, N.M. where JR worked in the oil field and Rosemary worked as a title clerk at Smoke Chevrolet. After three years they moved back to Muleshoe, Texas and JR farmed until 1970 when they moved to Denver, Colo. While in Denver she worked and received her real estate license and worked in the area until JR was transferred to Worland, Wyo. While there she went to school and got her real estate broker's license and appraiser's license and opened her own office. They then moved to Rock Springs, Wyo where she opened Harris Realty and worked until retiring in 1992 and moving to Lake Havasu.

She is survived by her husband of 63 years JR; son Gary (Helen) of Highlands Ranch, Colo.; daughter Sharon (Doug) of Chandler; son Mark (Theresa) of Westminster, Colo. She is also survived by her grandchildren: Stephanie Plank, Jennifer Patterson, Matthew Harris, Christopher Harris, Glen Fletcher and Diane Bishop; nine great-grandchildren: Katelyn, Madison, Mackenzie and newborn Easton that she never got to meet, Jacob, Tyler, Jessica, Nick and Amanda. She has on brother, Jesse and one sister, Joyce and many nieces and nephews living in Texas.

She was preceded in death by her brothers, Alfred and Kenneth and sister Claudia.

She was a member of Calvary Baptist Church in Lake Havasu since moving there and attended First Baptist Church in Pinetop during the summer months when they would stay at their RV in the White Mountains of Arizona. They loved the cool evenings and afternoon showers. They were members of the Lake Havasu Campers and participated in many camping trips with the club.

The family would like to express their gratitude for all the kind words, thoughts and prayers.

Memorial services for Rosemary were held Tuesday, July 3, at Calvary Baptist Church in Lake Havasu.

Fred L. McQuiston

Fredrick Lord McQuiston, 84, died Wednesday, June 27, 2012, in Show Low. He was born Feb. 11, 1928, in Taft, Calif. to Arnel Ford McQuiston and Janet Maud Miller McQuiston.

As a young man Fred worked in many fields such as leveling ground, cutting timber and ranching in Oregon. He lived in California, Oregon and Alaska and then moved to Arizona in 1971. Fred served honorably in the U.S. Navy from 1946-1948 and in the Navy Reserves from 1950-1952. He married Eunice Halsted Ryan Dec. 20, 1991, in Snowflake. Fred retired from Stone Container Corporation in 1992, where he worked as an instrument technician as a supervisor. After retirement Fred and Eunice enjoyed traveling around the United States for several years. Fred was an avid fisherman who especially loved fishing at Lake Powell. Later in life he enjoyed "rock hounding." His favorite rocks were Zebra Agates.

Fred is survived by his wife, Eunice of Snowflake; two stepsons: Danny (Bonnie) and Wally Heubel; and many friends and "rock hound" buddies.

He was preceded in death by his sister, Elizabeth McQuiston and parents: Arnel & Janet McQuiston.

No services are scheduled at this time. A celebration of his life will be held later this summer on Escudilla Mountain, east of Springerville.

Venue A. Miller

Venus A. Miller, 79, of Show Low died June 29, 2012, at her home in Summer Pines surrounded by her three children.

Venus Alsace-Lorraine Miller was born March 20, 1933 in Frackville, Pa. She is the daughter of Charles Raymond and Rosa Louise (Mendenhall) Faust. She was the fourth of five children. She had three older brothers: Donovan, Murrall, and La Mar and one younger sister Yvonne. She was the last surviving sibling. Venus moved from Pennsylvania with her family to Phoenix, in 1945 to escape the cold weather her father was so tired of.

Venus married her sweetheart, James Theodore "Teddy" Miller April 16, 1950 in Tempe, after three months of courtship. They met when a friend of Venus' set up a blind date for the two to meet.

At the time of her husband's death, they had been married for 47 years. Ted's nickname for his wife Venus was "Queenie." Venus and Ted spent all of their married life in Phoenix until they moved to Show Low in 1967. She loved to bowl and could always be found at the Show Low bowling alley. She was often teased "that her children were raised in a bowling alley." She was an excellent bowler but also found great pleasure in the friends that she made while bowling. Venus was adventurous and athletic all of her life. As a young girl she was on the swim team, was a diver, played softball, water skied. She loved to snow ski and taught many of her grandchildren to ski. She continued to snow ski until she was about 75 years old. Her interests included hunting, fishing, camping, bowling, traveling, crocheting, crafts, gardening.

She had great pride in her lawn that she kept as green as Ireland. Her passion for bowling would also include involvement in the following: A member of WIBC, President of the WIBC, Director of USBC & WIBC, Secretary of Punch & Judy Leagues. Her skill with crafting was used to decorate the banquets for the WIBC for the last 40 years. She had a wonderful smile and laugh. She was generous to a fault, Venus just couldn't say no to someone in need. Her work ethic was fierce and hard to keep up with. She always gave 100 percent and more.

She is survived by her daughter, Deborah (Steve) Caldwell; sons: Bruce (Jody) Miller and Douglas Miller, eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Ted Miller.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, July 7, at the Show Low Stake Center of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 1401 West Deuce of Clubs. Interment will follow in the Show Low Cemetery.

The family would like to acknowledge Hospice for the tender and loving care they gave Venus and her family during her final journey in this life.
