

New Position: Community Educator

A Safe Place is seeking a Community Educator who will be responsible for developing, delivering, and evaluating prevention and education programming related to domestic violence, sexual assault, healthy relationships, consent, and bystander intervention. The ideal candidate will be passionate about ending domestic violence and sexual assault, have strong public speaking and public relations skills, and have experience or comfort in teaching and leading.

A Safe Place is committed to building a diverse and inclusive work environment and is most interested in finding the best candidate for the job. That candidate may come from a background less traditional to our field of work, and that is ok. We encourage all to apply.
