

Don't let your yield slip away

The best way to control yield-limiting diseases in your canola, like white mold and blackleg, is to prevent them from taking hold in the first place. Zorina is the newest broad-spectrum fungicide, providing dual modes of action for proven white mold control and extended foliar disease protection. And it can be just the thing to help protect your yield potential.

Always read and follow label directions.

Zorina is a registered trademark of BASF.

©2026 BASF Agricultural Solutions US LLC. All Rights Reserved.

Zorina[®]
Fungicide

■ • BASF
We create chemistry