Our ag real estate loans are designed to help build that legacy.

We know building a farm for the next generation is worth the hard work because we are your neighbors, rooted in the same small-town values. Our team of local experts provides a genuine understanding of your agricultural needs, offering flexible real estate loans with fixed, adjustable, and variable rates. We're committed to serving you wherever you are, from online to on-the-farm. And as a member of our cooperative, you're not just a customer; you are a member-owner eligible to share in our success through patronage payments.
