

“Every time I look up, I admire the night sky, its constellations, moon rise and the Milky Way. There are friends - timeless, old friends - who never cease to fill me with awe. The night sky is an endangered natural wonder; we must protect it. I fully support the Friends of the Apostle Islands in their Starry Skies Initiative.”

— Bonnie Matuseski

President, Madeline Island Wilderness Preserve

