

- 1) Summertime conditions remained in place with temps well above normal.
- 2) Most received a half inch or less of rain last week, adding to what has been a very dry last 30 days.
- 3) D1 drought is now showing up in the NW, with large increases in D0 coverage.
- 4) Outlooks for mid-to-late October indicate slight lean towards a continuation of unseasonable warmth.