

Lexi is a Percheron draft horse who loves to work as well as show his stuff at fairs. He's a big boy, weighing almost 2,000 pounds and standing 17 hands tall! He likes to point out he's descended from French war horses, though he's gentle and friendly. " My kind was part of farming's beginnings in Wisconsin!" he says. "Horses are the best!"