

The Equalization Payment

- Normally, Class I plants make an equalization payment into the pool and manufacturing plants get to take a draw out of the pool. The payments are exactly equal to the Uniform (Blend) price minus the Class price.
- That way, all plants have exactly enough money to pay their producers the Blend price.