Criminal Mischief

LUBBOCK POLICE DEPARTMENTNarrative*Relationships:

IP2 was driving V1's vehicle, while V1 was in the rear of the vehicle.

A1 and A2 are team mates for Texas Tech Football.

IP3 was a representative for VAB1.

Police radio call to 2419 Main street, Bash Riprocks Bar, in reference to a civil disturbance with an armed subject.

Upon arrival, in my presence, A1 committed the listed criminal mischief without the consent of V1. A2 committed the listed criminal mischief without the consent of VAB1.

See related Disorderly Conduct Arrest report 18-10224.

Officer Joshua Jones and I parked on the 2400 block of Main Street, due to high traffic and the listed bar was closing, we parked near avenue X on Main Street. Officer S. King and Officer Jones were ahead of me towards the listed bar. As I was walking, I observed a Black male, later identified as A1, in the middle of the street. I observed A1 open the back door of a black passenger car traveling westbound. At this time, I was unsure if that was A1's ride home or a random vehicle. A1 made no attempt to enter into the vehicle. A1 was traveling at a slow pace with two other males eastbound on the 2400 block of Main Street. The listed vehicle was traveling eastbound on the 2400 block of Main Street. The listed vehicle was traveling at a pace similar to A1. A1 then kicked the listed vehicle. I observed the vehicle was not interfering with A1 who was walking where I sidewalk was provided. I began to approach A1 and as I was within 15 feet of A1, I observed him, with a closed right fist, punch the windshield of the listed vehicle one time. I heard the window break and observed an impact on the vehicle's windshield.

I approached A1 and placed my arms around A1's body in a bear hug. I advised A1 I was Lubbock Police Department. At this time, the group A1 was with began to interfere. A1 advised that the listed vehicle had tried to hit him. From where I was at, I could clearly see that the vehicle was simply traveling eastbound at a slow pace attempting to leave the area. I placed A1 in handcuffs as Officer Forrester, Officer S. King, and Officer Jones returned. Officer Forrester and I began to escort A1 away from the area and back to my patrol vehicle when A1 refused to walk on his own accord. At this time, dozens of citizens began approaching us creating an officer safety issue.

Other Officers and I stopped at the entrance to the parking garage of U loft apartments to maintain A1 and create a safer situation. As the crowd continued to grow more hostile our use of force escalated. Officer Forrester and Officer King drew their tasers while watching over A1.

I drew my Lubbock Police Department issued asp from my holster. I did not strike anyone with it but used it as a show of force and an escalation of force since the crowd was not following our commands. Other officers and myself were dressed in our Lubbock Police issued uniform complete with badge, patches, and duty belt. This did not phase the crowd and even more people arrived onscene. At this time, I had commanded IP1 to leave multiple times. IP1 remained onscene and continued to encroach on our defensive perimeter. Due to IP1 refusing to leave, I grabbed a hold of her to take her into custody for disorderly conduct. IP1 pulled away and was taken to the ground. IP1 refused to provide her hands but eventually complied with our commands. IP1 was taken back to where A1 was located while additional units arrived onscene.

While attempting to disperse the crowd that was approximately 150 people, I observed A2 punch a hole in the wall of VAB1. I observed the whole approximately 18 inches in length and 6 inches in width. I observed A2 in my presence damage the listed property of VAB1 without the consent of VAB1. Officer Morton made contact with representative for VAB1. See Officer Morton's supplement for further details.

Officer J. Jones and I transported A1 to Lubbock County Jail. A1 was arrested, transported and booked into Lubbock County Jail. I attached A1's booking forms as trailing documents.

A2 was transported via the paddy wagon to Lubbock County Jail. A2 was arrested, transported, and booked into Lubbock County Jail. I attached A2's booking forms as trailing documents.

Neither A1 nor A2 were injured.
