For holiday decorating, 4 Messie Monkeys helps deck the halls

By Amanda E.H. Pritchard
Special to The Daily Home

Have yourself a merry little Christmas when you stop by the recently opened 4 Messie Monkeys. At 5025 Cogswell Avenue in Pell City, owner Cayce Johnson has everything you need to deck the halls.

Charm and cheer greet you when you enter 4 Messie Monkeys. Besides its retail component, the store also hosts painting parties and wedding parties. "We want to offer more to our community by offering things for kids and women to do," Johnson said. "We have other classes like chalk painting and how to make bows."

Opening the shop because she believed it would meet a need in her community, she said she feels the love from her customers. "I want to keep our money in our town. It's nice to know you're loved, and we truly appreciate community members coming in to support us."

Local love is displayed all around the store in the form of custom-made products ready to be wrapped and put under the tree.

Ensuring your holidays are merry and bright, Johnson even makes house calls to decorate trees and mailboxes. Tree decorating services start at $125, and mailbox decorating starts at $65.

The shop is open 9 a.m.-6 p.m. Black Friday, and holiday hours are 9 a.m.-6p.m. weekdays except Wednesdays. Saturday hours are 9 a.m.-5 p.m. For more information, visit @4MessieMonkeys on Facebook.

Try before you buy at Merle Norman and Designer Corner

By LAURA NATION-ATCHISON
Special to The Daily Home

When holiday time means adding some glitz and glamour to your world, there's an easy option that's been a Talladega tradition for 60 years.

Just like the corporation she represents, Connie Welcher continues to deliver the beauty and style of Merle Norman collections, carrying on the tradition started by her mother, Allie Wilson.

The company has been a staple for finding the latest in cosmetics and skincare, and since taking over the business from her mother, Welcher has expanded it to offering fabulous finds in fashion as well, adding her Design Corner boutique to the established Merle Norman products and service.

It's always been "Try Before You Buy" for the company's representatives, and this tradition is one started by company founder, Merle Norman herself, in 1931.

The concept caught on for women, who often faced making selections of color and shades, along with texture and coverage, by peering through packaging that couldn't offer them the benefit of seeing the products applied to their skin.

This alone is a big part of Merle Norman's allure to its customers, but when you add in the factor of having a professionally trained stylist demonstrate a whole new look, there's even more to the company's personal touch.

Welcher says she can usually take a customer through the steps with products specially selected for their taste and features in about 30 minutes, and she loves making sure that her patrons feel and look their very best.

"It's so nice to see someone happy with the changes, and these are done with our customers one-on-one as they choose their preferences," she said. The choices in products are created for all skin types and lifestyles, and Welcher can guide her customers to the blends and shades that will meet specific needs.

One of Merle Norman's very popular services is offering personalized make-up sessions by appointment, and Welcher said these have included a total look created for weddings and proms, parties and many other occasions.

"All you need to do is call and book a time," she said. "I love helping someone become their prettiest self."

With this in mind, adding the collections of clothing and accessories to the store adds to the concept.

With one stop, her customers can be ready for any occasion, from head to toe, finding ready-to-wear pieces and all the necessities in-between.

There's clothing from dressy to casual and the perfect touches to take your outfit from home or the office to a holiday gathering of any kind.

There are mix-and-match pieces offering holiday and seasonal flair, along with traditional favorites for all seasons and events.

These are easily paired with Designer Corner's offerings to finish off a new look, with several lines of fashion jewelry that's made to accentuate personal style.

A favorite among customers are designs from Brighton, featuring pendants and bracelets in sterling and other metals, with design-it-yourself options, as well as finished favorites.

Brighton offers its own styles in earrings as well, and Design Corner also stocks the company's line of fashion sunglasses.

Welcher says hers is a profession that allows her to enjoy meeting people and providing

"I still have some of my mother's customers," she said. "I really enjoy that. And I'm so grateful for being able to continue with this business and for all my loyal customers."

Stopping in for the Merle Norman/Designer Corner Christmas Open House is a great opportunity for seeing the holiday specials

Make it a special Christmas with a visit to Talladega Cycle

By Laura Nation-Atchison
Special to The Daily Home

Thinking of something shiny and bright, something designed with a purpose but a whole lot of fun, too, when you think of your Christmas list?

The reality of such thoughts and many more are waiting for you at Talladega Cycle, where the things that can get you moving in a whole new direction are always on hand.

Talladega Cycle features the brand Kawasaki, which covers the gamut from luxury street bikes and sport styles to everything in-between.

"We feature just about any kind of power sports vehicles and along with these the power equipment people need for their outdoor maintenance tasks," said sales manager Jason Upchurch.

When it comes to the youngsters on your Christmas list, Upchurch said the Trailmaster go-carts are always a favorite, along with a selection of dirt bikes made especially for young riders.

Talladega Cycle also offers the Traxxis line of remote control cars, which are very high end and a great choice for both youngsters and the older set.

It also keeps a complete stock of accessories and extras, such as safety gear for enthusiasts of all ages. Helmets, gloves and riding boots are available.

Talladega Cycle provides service for the vehicles and equipment it sells and offers full-service needs for products you may already own.

The dealership is at 35288 Alabama 21. Hours are 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Mondays, 9 a.m.-6 p.m. Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays and 9 a.m.-3 p.m. Saturdays.
