To the extent required by law, the liquidated damages amount shall be subject to deductions for state and federal taxes. The monthly liquidated damages payments by the University shall cease as specified in Section 5.01(h) hereof. The Employee will be entitled to continue such insurance benefits at Employee's own expense as required or permitted either by law or by University Rules, but Employee will not otherwise be entitled to any additional compensation or employment or other benefit described in Article

IV hereof

(2) The parties have bargained for and agreed to the foregoing liquidated damages provisions giving consideration to the fact that termination of this Contract by the University without cause prior to its expiration may cause the Employee to lose certain benefits and incentives, supplemental compensation, or other athletically-related compensation associated with Employee's employment at the University, which damages are extremely difficult to determine with certainty or fairly or adequately, all of which damages are extremely difficult to determine with certainty or fairly or adequately. The parties further agree that the payment of liquidated damages described above by the University and acceptance thereof by Employee shall constitute adequate and reasonable compensation to Employee for the damages and injuries suffered by Employee because of such termination without cause. The foregoing shall not be, nor be construed to be, a penalty.

(f) Waiver of Claims. In any instance of suspension of Employee pursuant to Section 5.01(g) or the termination of the Contract pursuant to Sections 5.01(a), 5.01(b), 5.01(d)(1), or 5.01(i), except as provided for herein, the University shall have no liability whatsoever to Employee, nor shall Employee be entitled to receive, and Employee hereby waives any claim that Employee or Employee's personal representatives may have against the University or the University's trustees, foundations, officers, employees, or agents, for any direct or consequential damages by reason of any alleged economic loss, including, but without limitation, loss of collateral income, talent fees, earning capacity, business opportunities, incentive and supplemental income, benefits, or perquisites, including those described in Sections 4.02 and 4.03 hereof, or Commercial Activities income or fees or by reason of alleged humiliation or defamation resulting from the fact of termination or suspension, the public announcement thereof, or the University's • release of information or documents required by law. Employee acknowledges that in the event of the termination of this Contract for cause, without cause, or otherwise, Employee shall have no right to occupy Employee's Initial Position, or then current position, at the University, and Employee's sole remedies are provided for herein and shall not extend to injunctive relief.

(g) Suspension for Cause. In lieu of termination for cause, for any one or more of the acts or omissions representing grounds for termination for cause under Section 5.01(b), the University may suspend Employee for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days with full pay or without pay. If the matter giving rise to a suspension without pay is finally resolved completely in favor of Employee, and does not otherwise represent an independent basis for termination hereunder for cause, University shall pay to Employee the amount that otherwise would have been paid to Employee during the period of suspension. Suspension under this Section 5.01(g) shall not limit or prevent the right of the University to act pursuant to Sections 5.01(b) or 5.01(d)(1) during or subsequent to such suspension.

(h) Mitigation of Liquidated Damages. While the University's obligation to pay liquidated damages remains in effect, the Employee agrees to mitigate the University's obligation to pay liquidated damages as soon as possible after termination of this Contract by the University by promptly commencing to make reasonable, continued, and diligent efforts to obtain employment as a head or assistant coach, other athletic staff member, or as an administrator in college, university, high school, amateur, or professional sports (collectively hereafter referred to as a "Coaching Position"). The University's obligation to pay the liquidated damages provided for shall cease as of the date of Employee's acceptance of employment in a Coaching Position. Employee agrees to notify the University within fourteen (14) days of the date Employee accepts new employment. For purposes of this subsection (h), employment means working in a Coaching Position as an employee, an independent contractor, consultant, or self-employed person.

(i) Deduction of Amounts Owed to University. Upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Contract for any reason whatsoever, Employee agrees that the University shall be entitled and authorized to withhold and deduct from any final payment of any kind that is owed to Employee by the University the amount of any unreturned recruiting advances, or other funds previously advanced to Employee by the University or a University Supporting Foundation for Employee's business use, or the amount of any other indebtedness owed to the University by Employee.

(j) Confidential Information. Employee acknowledges that, during the term of employment by the University, Employee will gain "Confidential Information," as defined herein, concerning the University's athletic program and that the use of this "Confidential Information" by a competitor Division I institution would place the University's athletic program at a serious competitive disadvantage. Accordingly, Employee expressly promises and agrees not to share any "Confidential Information," with any other Division I school in any capacity prior to the date on which the term of this Contract would have expired. Employee further agrees that, because Employee's services under this Contract are of a special, unique, unusual, extraordinary and intellectual character which gives those services special value, the loss to the University of which cannot be reasonably or adequately compensated in damages in a action at law, and because said breach would place the University at significant competitive disadvantage, the University shall have the right to obtain from any court such equitable, injunctive, or other relief as may be appropriate, including a decree enjoining Employee from sharing any "Confidential Information" with any Division I school. For the purposes of this clause, "Confidential Information" means information disclosed to, acquired or learned by Employee as a consequence of Employee's employment by the University. "Confidential Information" includes, without limitation, information which is generally treated by the University as confidential; information generally treated by other Division I competing institutions as confidential; information generally not known by other Division I competing programs about the business of the University or the University's athletic program; all information of the foregoing type relating to any recruits, players, employees, officers, or supporters, of the University; and all physical or electronic embodiments of any of the foregoing. "Confidential Information" also includes, without limitation, the whole or any part or phase of any information process, procedure, plan, equipment, mechanism, technique, method or system, if any, which is used by the University, or those of its employees to whom it has been confided, and which is believed or intended to give the University any advantage over competitors who do not know or use it.

Article VI - Prospective Employment

6.01 During the term hereof should Employee become interested in employment with another college or university or with a professional or amateur organization or should another college or university or professional or amateur organization directly or indirectly contact Employee about possible employment, then prior to Employee, either directly or indirectly through an agent or otherwise, contacting the college, university, or professional or amateur organization, Employee must first notify the Director of Athletics and Head Coach of such interest or contact and secure the Director of Athletics' permission which shall not be unreasonably withheld for Employee to make such a contact.

Article VII - Academics

7.01 It is recognized by the parties that a student-athlete may be declared ineligible for competition for academic reasons because the University believes the student-athlete would not be an appropriate representative of this University, as a disciplinary sanction under the University's student code of conduct, because the University believes that the student-athlete is ineligible according to University Rules or Governing Athletic Rules, or for similar reasons. In no event shall such an action by the University be deemed a breach of this Contract.

Article VIII - Miscellaneous

8.01 The parties hereby confirm their understanding that Employee's employment in the Initial Position and any subsequent positions at the University are non-tenure track positions and will not lead to tenure.

8.02 This Contract may be amended at any time only by a written instrument duly signed by the University through its designated representative and by Employee.

8.08 It is expressly agreed and understood between the parties that nothing contained herein shall be construed to constitute a waiver by the University of its right to claim such exemptions, privileges and immunities as may be provided by law.

8.09 All notices, requests, demands, and other communications hereunder may be given by telephone, unless specified otherwise, which shall be effective when received verbally or may be in writing (including, but not limited to, facsimile/tecopied communications) and shall be given by (1) personal delivery, (2) delivery via expedited delivery or mail service such as Federal Express, (3) United States mail, with first class postage, prepaid, or (4) facsimile/telecopier.
