McKinney Gains Nine Yards, Later Helps Give Bruhn Victory Ride

Fullback Gerald McKinney (33) of Wisconsin smashes ahead for nine yards against Minnesota in the first quarter of Saturday's game. Gopher end Jack Park (81) finally grabbed McKinney's ankle to bring him down. Coming up to assist on the play is Jack Perkovich (63). AP Wirephoto

East Flattens Wausau, 55-36, to Even Record

By TOM BUTLER (State Journal Sports Writer)

Madison East High school opened the home portion of its basketball schedule with a 55-36 victory over Wausau Saturday night.

East got an outstanding performance from Jim Hackbart, a rangy junior who scored 20 points and did a surprisingly efficient job of rebounding. His spark enabled the Purgolders to grab their first victory after an opening loss to Oshkosh last Wednesday.

Neither team distinguished itself in the early season outing. Wausau, which lost to Madison West Friday night, now is 1-2 for the season.

Haak Bags 18

Hackbart's chief assistance came from Rod Haak, who hit nine baskets, five in the fourth quarter, and wound up with 18 points.

The Purgolders started to pull away late in the first period after the Lumberjacks had jumped off to a 9-6 lead. Hackbart banged in two rebounds before the end of the period, giving his team a lead it never relinquished.

Hackbart made it three straight rebound goals with a basket to start the second quarter. Five more East baskets gave the Purgolders a 22-9 advantage. They led at halftime, 26-14.

Wausau moved to within six points at 26-20, early in the second half, but Haak hit from short range and Bill Maselter chalked up five straight points. It was the first scoring big Moe had done in the game and gave the Purgolders a 33-20 lead.

The Lumberjacks cut the margin to eight points at the start of the final period. Then East racked up 10 straight points on two field goals apiece for Haak and Maselter and a brace of free throws for Hackbart as the Purgolders moved in front, 45-27.

Football Legs

Two quick baskets by Haak in the closing seconds of the game gave East its final 19-point margin.

Al Kuehl, Ken Schiefelbein, and Jim Severson shared scoring honors for the Lumberjacks with eight points each.

East still had its football legs, especially Maselter, who couldn't seem to get going until the late stages when he found the range and his rebounding improved.

Opening Game

Crusaders Trounce Hornet Five, 74-56

By DON LINDSTROM (State Journal Sports Writer)

Madison Edgewood High school's basketball team bounced off to a successful start in the 1961-62 season Saturday night by overwhelming Richland Center, 74-56.

Coach Dave Brown's Crusaders, who won the consolation championship in last year's state Catholic tournament to climax a 20-4 record, used a full-court press and a scattergun attack to race to a 20-8 first-quarter lead. By halftime, the Crusaders had a 40-23 margin over the Hornets.

Dennis Sweeney was the game's leading scorer with 22 points for the victorious Crusaders. Jim Fleming, who didn't start, and Fred Kinney added 13 and 10 respectively.

Richland Center had a three-gun attack in Gerald Hoskins, Dan McCauley and Randy Peckham who flipped in 19, 16, and 13 points, to account for all but eight of the losers' total.

Sparked by Sweeney, Bob Lombardo, and Kinney, the Crusaders vaulted from a 6-5 lead midway in the first quarter to a comfortable 26-9 margin on the strength of the full-court press which demoralized Richland Center. With 3:08 minutes left in the first half, Edgewood had a 17-point margin, 30-13.

The Crusaders, heavily hit with personal fouls, lost Kinney and rebound ace Larry Moston at the start of the fourth period, but Brown's reserves picked up the tempo and finished with an 18-point splurge that was headed by Fleming, John Oswell, and Sweeney.

The largest Edgewood margin was 23 points, 70-47, with 3:16 minutes left.

Brown used 17 players. The Crusaders hit 34 of 81 attempts for 41 per cent, while Richland Center dunked 19 of 71 for almost 27 per cent.

Regents Outlast Terrors

APPLETON — Madison West's Regents pulled away from the Terrors after the first period here Saturday night and handed Appleton High school's basketball team a 63-61 defeat. It was West's second victory of the young season.

West had a 55-41 lead midway in the fourth quarter, then withstood the Terrors' final surge.

In the final summary, the converting of 21 of 35 free throws was responsible for West's triumph. The Regents were outscored in field goals, 25-21. Appleton was assessed 24 fouls while the Madison team drew only 12.

John Schweers paced West's scoring with 21 points, five of which he scored on free throws. Mike Moore chipped in with 16 points and Hank Cuccia with 13.

Mike Lee was Appleton's big gun with 24 points before he fouled out.

Johnson Creek snapped a two-game losing streak by posting a 52-45 decision over Palmyra. The Bluejays were in command after trailing at the quarter, 12-7.

Monroe went down to its second defeat in as many nights as it dropped a 54-47 decision to Freeport, Ill.

Bahama Cops Split Decision

NEW YORK (AP) — Yama Bahama, the clever counter-puncher, got off to a fast start Saturday night and gained a split decision over favored Faird Salim of Argentina in a television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

The 28-year-old Bahama, circling and bobbing, piled up points with effective left jabs and left hooks and then withstood the Argentine middleweight champion's blistering rally in the last three rounds.

The victory was Bahama's third straight. The defeat snapped Salim's winning streak at seven. The Argentine was an 11-5 favorite.

Referee Mark Conn (6-4) and Judge Johnny Dran (8 rounds to 2) voted for Bahama. Judge Leo Birnbaum called it a draw giving each five rounds and five points.

Bahama weighed 161 pounds, Salim 160.

Princeton Jolted

PRINCETON, N. J. (UPI) — Dartmouth quarterback Bill King blasted Princeton's hope for a share of the Ivy League football crown Saturday by passing for one touchdown, scoring another, and setting up a third in a 24-6 victory over the Tigers.

Colorado Routs Cyclones, 34-0

Takes Orange Bowl Berth Against LSU

BOULDER, Colo. (UPI) — Colorado overwhelmed Iowa State 34-0, Saturday to capture its first Big Eight Conference football championship, then accepted an invitation to play Louisiana State in the Orange Bowl.

Sophomore Bill Harris streaked 86 and 59 yards on two of his three touchdown runs to lead the Buffaloes to their eighth victory against only one loss. Colorado closes its regular season next Saturday against Air Force.

LSU Scout Watches

Kansas also had been under consideration as the Big Eight's Orange Bowl representative, but lost to Missouri, 10-7. Those two teams finished two games behind Colorado in the Big Eight race.

Colorado, which entered the conference in 1948 and had never won the championship, was in trouble only once Saturday. The tough Buffalo line shouldered Iowa's State's single wing into the turf.

Colorado went 66 yards in 16 plays for a touchdown early in the first period to take a 7-0 lead. Halfback Teddy Woods scored from two yards.

Cyclone Drive Halted

Iowa State came back 50 yards for a first down on the Colorado four. But four smashes into the line, three by tailback Dave Hoppmann, the nation's offense leader, and one by tailback Dave Hoover got only two yards. Hoppman had completed 26 and 17-yard passes in the drive.

Hoppmann carried the big load for Iowa State, handling the ball on nearly every play. But Colorado's charging line kept him on his back much of the time. End Jerry Hillebrand, center Walt Klinker, and All-American guard Joe Romig led the Colorado charge.

Increase in Ski Tow Rates Voted at Rib Mountain

WAUSAU—An increase in ski tow rates at Rib Mountain state park has been voted by the Wisconsin Conservation Commission.

Under the new daytime fee schedule, adults will pay $3.50, a half-dollar increase over the old rate; a $2 fee will be instituted for persons aged 13 through 17; and children 12 years of age and under will continue to pay $1.

Night fees have been upped from $1 to $1.50 for adults and from 50 cents to 75 cents for others.

Adult season tickets will now cost $35, an increase of $5 over the old rate. The 13-through-17 age group will pay $20 per season, and children 12 years of age and under will pay $10. Season tickets purchased after Dec. 15 will cost an additional $5. Under the old seasonal rates all juniors paid a seasonal fee of $15.

Additional income will go toward defraying increased costs of operation at the park. Ski tow rates at Rib Mountain have not been increased since 1959.

Bucks Lead First College Cage Ratings

NEW YORK (AP) — Ohio State's mighty Buckeyes are the pre-season pick to become the 1961-1962 national college basketball champion by an Associated Press panel of sports writers and broadcasters.

The Buckeyes, who had a 32-game winning streak shattered last March when they were upset by Cincinnati, 70-65 in overtime, for the NCAA championship, received 27 first-place votes of the 36 ballots cast. The Bucks totaled a high of 336 points.

Providence Fifth

Cincinnati was second with eight first-place votes and 279 points. The University of Southern California was the only other school to get top mention, receiving one first-place vote.

Providence placed fifth, followed by Purdue.

Wisconsin meets Ohio State and Purdue each once in Big 10 play and has a non-conference game scheduled against Cincinnati. In addition, the Badgers meet Providence in the opening round of the Holiday Festival tournament in New York.

Lucas Returns

Coach Fred Taylor will present almost the same Ohio State team that finished first in the final AP poll last season. Big Jerry Lucas, the all-American center, will return along with 6-5 John Havlicek and 6-2 Mel Nowell. The only regulars lost by graduation are Larry Siegfried and Richie Hoyt. Their places will be filled by Bob Knight (6-4) and Gary Gearhart (6-2). The starting five are all seniors.

Cincinnati, also, has almost the same team back which captured the Missouri Valley Conference crown last season. The Bearcats won 23 of their 26 regular season games and finished second to Ohio State in last year's AP poll.

Berlin High's Mitchell Top Grid 'Terror'

OSHKOSH—Nearby Berlin High school has a fullback who did a whale of a job for a small player.

He's Greg Mitchell, a terror in the Little 10 Conference this year despite the fact that he stands only 5-8 and weighs but 158 pounds.

Totals 1,539 Yards

Mitchell carried the ball 126 times and gained 921 yards for an average of more than seven yards. He also returned 10 kick-offs for 367 yards, lugged back eight punts for 113 yards, returned four pass interceptions for 103 yards, and caught two passes for 61 yards.

All this adds up to an impressive 1,539 yards and 16 touchdowns. He also made 12 extra points for a point total of 108 — a Berlin High school record.

His touchdown runs included gallops of 85, 83, 79, 77, and 66 yards. Mitchell was out three days with an attack of the flu before the only game in which Berlin was shut out.

School Record

Mitchell scored 93 points in Little 10 play to better the 72 by another Berlin great, Bill Butler, now with Pittsburgh's Steelers.

Berlin Coach Owen Evans has nothing but praise for his senior fullback. Evans says: "Mitchell is very shifty and smart. He's an excellent flocker, plays safety for us, and was our deep man on all punts and kickoffs."

Oklahoma Downs Nebraska, 21-14

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Oklahoma's late-blooming Sooners stormed from behind in the second half Saturday to conquer Nebraska, 21-14, in a battle of Big Eight Conference also-rans.

Trailing 14-0 at intermission, the resurgent Oklahomans scored their first touchdown in the first 89 seconds of the second half. They added another 10 minutes later and ground out 98 yards in 24 plays in the final drive to victory.

It ran the Oklahoma win string to four games and gives the Sooners a chance for a break-even season in next week's finale against Oklahoma State.

Maryland Surprised, Loses Gator Bowl Bid

CHARLOTTESVILLE Va. (UPI) — Virginia, which had won only three of its previous 36 games, stole Maryland's passing attack Saturday and canceled the Terrapins' Gator Bowl invitation with a 28-16 upset.

The Cavaliers scored three touchdowns on passes from Gary Cuozzo to John Hepler.

Virginia added insult to injury with its fourth touchdown, a 95-yard run by halfback Ted Rzempoluch with an intercepted pass from Maryland's ace passer, quarterback Dick Shiner.
