Fresh food ✓ Low prices ✓

On the following pages, you'll find the results of the Best of Bowling Green 2017

In August, readers of the Daily News and the Amplifier were invited to nominate their favorites in over 100 categories. In September, the top five nominees in each category were then voted on by the readers to determine the best.

The Best of Bowling Green is not scientific and does not pretend to be. It is offered for entertainment purposes only.

Best of each category printed in Bold. "Favorites" printed in light face type.

WARREN CENTRAL GRADUATES 170 STUDENTS

By AARON MUDD
amudd@bgdailynews.com

When Warren Central High School graduates from Fayette County celebrated their diplomas Saturday, they did so as a group of African-American women planning to provide a better education for their children. "It's kind of nerve-racking," Collins said as she held up her diploma. "I'm going to do good in the next chapter."

Collins was among 170 graduating seniors who were recognized for their academic, athletic and extracurricular achievements during the school's 48th commencement. The 2017 graduating class earned 52.5 million in scholarship awards. Principal Mike Stevenson said in his remarks. As always, Principal Mike Stevenson said in his remarks. GREENWOOD GRAD FULFILLS FATHER'S DREAM

amudd@bgdailynews.com

When Tony Trank graduated in Greenwood High School's 1997 commencement, he had done so after leaving Vietnam with his family in a wooden boat, fleeing from practical persecution in Indochina and back America.

Now a local pharmacist, Trank watched his child win a Louisville graduate Saturday with the same 4.0 GPA he'd earned as a Greenwood High graduate 27 years ago.

"Through it all, Trank truly wanted to America for being here, but not his dream of creating a better future for his children, just as his father, Tony, did when he joined him in that boat at age 15."

WARREN EAST GRAD TO JOIN MOM IN COLLEGE

By JUSTIN STORIS
jstoris@bgdailynews.com

By the time McCoy had moved here years for his mother at the spring, and the Warren East High School graduate hoped he could get through it peacefully when that moment came Saturday during WEED's commencement.

"I was really, but when they called my name to read up and I got more excited, I started getting butterflies," McCoy said. "I just hoped I wouldn't slip across the stage."

McCoy, an honors graduate who also played football for WEED, accepted his diploma without any slip-ups. After the ceremony at E.A. Dobbie Arena, he headed

Former senator, Hall of Famer Jim Bunning dies

By BRUCE SCHREIBER
bschreiber@bgdailynews.com

LEITCHVILLE — Former U.S. Sen. Jim Bunning, a childless, 91 grandchild and 21 great-grandchildren, died Saturday at the age of 91.

"The family is deeply grateful for the love and prayers of Jim's friends and supporters," his family said in a statement. "While he was a public servant with a heart for the people, he was also a father, grandfather, uncle, and friend to many. He will be missed, but his legacy will live on in the hearts of those he loved and served."

Former Sen. Jim Bunning, R-Ky, speaks in 2008 on Capitol Hill in Washington.

Domestic violence shelter numbers up

By DEBORAH HIGHLAND
dhighland@bgdailynews.com

When Christi Knappe walked away from her abusive marriage and moved into Haven Street, she was one of the many women who have sought refuge at the shelter since it opened in 2013.

"There I was there, I knew it was under normal circumstances, but when I saw the numbers, I knew it was a crisis," Knappe said. "Nobody could get in and out. I was able to lay down and go to sleep without worrying about being found and killed. SEAN was my
