

Say Goodbye to maintenance

Now is the time to choose a resolution that you'll truly enjoy! How about a worry-free lifestyle? Learn more about the Village Cooperative of Billings— a new community Coming Soon to Your Area that is designed for Active Adults (62+) who want home ownership without all the maintenance and hassles!

Say Hello to Village Cooperative

How about a new New Year's resolution that will positively impact your life far more than losing a few pounds? If you know that you won't live in your house forever, we have a home ownership option you may not have considered. One you can call home and have the lifestyle you want and deserve. That's because the Village Cooperative offers maintenance-free living for active adults (62+) with fantastic amenities at an excellent value, so you have more time to enjoy what matters most to you.

Home ownership has never been easier! Don't put your future on hold while housing prices are still up and the next big repair bill is looming over your current house. See why so many have chosen the Village Cooperative as their home. Learn how they are cashing out and moving into the Village Cooperative to find the safety, security and enjoyment they want in their next chapter of life.

To learn more, join us at our upcoming FREE Info Seminar on Tuesday, Jan. 27th at 1:00pm!

See for yourself why so many active adults have chosen the Village Cooperative as their next home! Feel free to share this with a friend and invite them to join as well. You and they will be glad you did.
