PUBLISHER
Dave Worstell

Welcome to The Holiday Food and Gift Festival

*H*ello Billings and Beyond! I would like to invite you all to attend the 38th Annual Holiday Food and Gift Festival. I have 215 amazing small businesses ready to serve you! I encourage you to make November 9th and 10th the start of your holiday shopping this year, we have something for everyone on your list. We have a variety of handmade items, leather goods, candles, soaps, blankets, clothing, jewelry, furniture, home décor and more. There are several boutiques to choose from, pick out your attire for your holiday parties or just add some fun new items to your wardrobe. For all you foodies out there we have BBQ sauce, mustards, cheese, spices, seafood, beef, pork, jam, syrup, oils, cutting boards and the list goes on. If you have a sweet tooth there will be a huge variety of baked goods, cookies, pies, cakes, bars and donuts! Be sure to arrive on an empty stomach grab a coffee and fill up on BBQ, eggrolls, noodles, rice, crepes, more donuts, gourmet grilled cheese, popcorn, brats, loaded baked potatoes, and ice cream.

Be sure to keep the tradition alive and have your picture taken with Santa! Check out the entertainment stage while you are there, we have a full schedule of dancers, martial arts and 2 performances by Nova Theater this year. Another crowd favorite, the baby alpacas from Alpacas of Montana, will also be in attendance.

The Holiday Food and Gift Festival is also a great time to make a donation to Tumbleweed. Admission is $5 or $2 if you bring a can of food or a bag of food for Tumbleweed. Toiletries, feminine products, socks, hats, gloves and MET bus passes will also be accepted. Tumbleweed will be in attendance accepting monetary donations as well. For more information about their organization and how you can help make a difference visit www.tumbleweedprogram.org. You can also purchase your admission tickets ahead of time at <https://holidayfoodandgiftfestival.com/product/2024-presale-tickets/>. $1 from each online ticket purchased will go to Tumbleweed.

Best Regards,
