In the Rambold sentencing, I made references to the victim's age and control. I'm not sure just what I was attempting to say, but it did not come out correct.

What I said is demeaning of all women, not what I believe and irrelevant to the sentencing. My apologies to all my fellow citizens.

As to the sentence, itself, I will add an addendum to the Court file to hopefully better explain the sentence.

Again, I apologize to all of you.

Yours truly,
