THREE SCHOOLS COLLECE

Limitless Opportunities to Be Ready for Anything

SCHOOL OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

The Concordia academic experience is built on a foundation of core programs – all of which are focused on preparing students for meaningful careers and lives after graduation.

"My internship allowed me to take the technical skills I learned in the classroom and apply them to real-life situations."

- OLIVIA VERGIN '22 Environmental and Sustainability Studies, Biology

OFFUTT SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

The Offutt School of Business prepares students for business in the 21st century. Our graduates know how to be responsibly engaged in the world with skills in global understanding, entrepreneurship, ethics, and leadership. They prove their knowledge through internships and numerous student activities.

"The mentorship programs offered by Offutt School of Business highly contributed to my professional profile, helping me land internships and educational programs on four different continents."

- JULIÁ OZANIAKOVÁ '21 Business, Computer Science

SANFORD HEIMARCK SCHOOL OF HEALTH PROFESSIONS

Four of Fargo-Moorhead's top eight largest employers are from the healthcare industry, giving Concordia students access to a wide range of internships, practicums, and part-time positions in their field of study.

"I had the opportunity to have two 500-hour internships. I gained an understanding of hospital operations, the importance of open communication, the significance of prior preparation, and the will to adapt to an ever-changing environment."

- BLAKE KRAGNES '20 Healthcare Leadership, Long-Term Care Administration

Diverse and Connected

SKC serves students from around northwestern Montana and across the United States. The learning environment creates an awareness and appreciation for the diversity of students – Native and non-Native – that attend the College. As a small college, we provide a close connection between students and faculty, creating a safe setting to explore new paths.

Rising to the Challenge

As SKC faces the future it continues to adapt. More and more of our classes and programs are available online. While faculty and student services remain very accessible, students may choose to take classes from home. The College strives to make classes engaging and culturallysustaining, whether online or on campus.

Serving Something Greater

Service Learning and Citizenship are components of all SKC programs. When SKC graduates begin their careers, they understand they are not just going to work. They are attending to the vital needs of their communities.
