

Cecelia Rimer

7/22/52 - 5/10/2015

It was 6 years ago in the early morning of mothers day. God came down and took your hand and led you away. He said you had suffered enough and there was no cure in sight. So he came to take you home to Heaven this night.

You're at peace with the World and feel no more pain. So now you are happy and you're smiling again. The hardest thing for me was to say good bye and I Love you so much I won't even try.

When I'm sleeping I hear you call and sit up in bed. But where you should be there is just space instead. I think of you every day and the many trips we made to Vegas, our wedding, and all the games we played. Bootsie got lonely and went to join you last year. And now there is just the two of us living here. So save two places for us to join you up there so that once again our love we both can share.

Love, Lucky & Your Husband John