

Happy Birthday
Cecelia Rimer

7/22/52 - 5/10/15

July 22nd in the year 52

Is when your mother gave birth to you

For 62 years you were the very best

Bringing joy and happiness to all the rest

A big hug, a kiss, a pat on the head

Your Grandsons tears were replaced with a smile instead

Those were the duties of a good Grandma

And you were one of the best I ever saw

From cooking meals, cleaning the house to planting flowers

You did it with love from the heart not counting the hours

And we enjoyed each other for 21 years

I can't think of you without shedding tears

The places we've been and the things we've done

The two of us united as one

Four years ago God called you above

And that day I lost my only true love

Bootsie drags the toy you made her all over the place

And lucky stays in your room longing to see your face

The three of us are waiting to again be with thee

So save a place up there for Lucky, Bootsie and me

Happy Birthday with all of our Love

Luck, Bootsie, & Your Husband John
