

RANCH HAND NEEDED

WASHINGTON COUNTY, TX

We are looking for a skilled ranch hand who can take care of approximately 84 acres of pastureland in Washington County, Texas, area, which includes a stocked fishpond and accommodations to include a brand new 2 bedroom “type” apartment, with high ceilings. Job Duties would include taking care of livestock, shredding, weed eating, and maintaining a small vineyard which is being constructed later this year. This area in Washington County, Texas, has great views of the countryside and is located in the highly desirable Brenham Independent School district.

Please provide resume with phone number to cchoate@agrohansa.com or for more info call 832-674-3120.