

Common-Sense Leadership for Northwest Ohio 2026 Candidate Announcement

BRANDON MOSKWA REPUBLICAN

Brandon Moskwa is running for State House Representative in District 81 to bring accountability, transparency, and practical leadership back to Columbus.

A lifelong resident of Bryan, Ohio, Brandon is a small business owner and founder of Bryan Excavation & Septic. Through his work serving homeowners, farmers, and small businesses across Northwest Ohio, he understands firsthand the challenges facing working families and the agricultural community.

Brandon has been actively working alongside local farmers to address burdensome state restrictions while ensuring responsible stewardship of our watershed. He believes environmental responsibility and economic freedom can coexist through practical, locally driven solutions — not heavy-handed mandates from Columbus.

"I'm not a career politician. I'm one of you. I've worked hard, built businesses, and raised my family here. I'm running to ensure the voices of District 81 are heard, respected, and represented."

If elected, Brandon Moskwa will fight for:

- Eliminating property taxes on homeowners so families can truly own their homes
- Replacing property tax funding with fair, transparent alternatives including state-level school funding and reduction of government waste
- Protecting funding for essential local services like fire departments, law enforcement, and libraries
- Strong support for local farmers and agricultural independence
- Protection of our watershed through practical, locally driven solutions
- Government transparency and accountability
- Policies that strengthen small businesses and create local jobs
