

Seven Reasons to plan for a memorial in advance

1. No one likes to think about his own death, but failure to do so makes it more difficult on the bereaved family.
2. Choosing a family memorial is a joint decision.
Why should someone be forced to make it alone?
3. The worst time to make a financial commitment is when there has been a death in the family.
4. By planning in advance, you protect your family from harassing telephone calls and high pressure sales tactics from some eager salespeople.
5. Advance planning assures that your insurance will be used for the needs of your loved ones.
6. Advanced planning assures a memorial of the quality you desire.
7. There is no such thing as an "unexpected death."
The time to act is now.
