

WHERE ELSE WOULD YOU RATHER BE?

Celebrate the Bills' last regular season game at Highmark stadium with posters from the pages of The Buffalo News

THE BUFFALO NEWS
Monday, January 5, 2015 | SECTION 1

NFL MONDAY

BILLS 35 JETS 8

Week 18: Saying goodbye to Highmark and hello to playoffs, the Bills earn AFC's 6th seed to begin Super quest on road vs. Jaguars

Fond farewell

Bills running back Ty Johnson is held aloft by offensive tackle Spencer Brown in celebration of his last home game during the second quarter.

In flawed AFC field, Bills might - might - be best

Spencer Brown, the Bills' offensive tackle, was named the AFC's best offensive tackle by the Associated Press. Brown, who has been a consistent performer for the Bills, was named the AFC's best offensive tackle by the Associated Press. Brown, who has been a consistent performer for the Bills, was named the AFC's best offensive tackle by the Associated Press.

What's next

When No. 6 seed Buffalo Bills (12-4) face No. 1 seed Jacksonville Jaguars (13-3) on Sunday.

Cook's cameo paves way to us

James Cook will have a cameo appearance in the Bills' final home game against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Sunday. Cook, who has been a consistent performer for the Bills, will have a cameo appearance in the Bills' final home game against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Sunday.

Lawmaker backs tool to curb drink spiking
St. Jean Tard calls for bars and nightclubs to provide lids to patrons | PAGE 10

THE BUFFALO NEWS

WHERE YOUR STORY LIVES

WHERE ELSE WOULD YOU RATHER BE?

Bills end 53 seasons at Highmark Stadium with 35-8 win over Jets

With the Bills' new stadium rising in the background, Buffalo quarterback Josh Allen takes the field for one play to start the final regular-season game on Sunday.

Tailgating will follow Bills to new stadium

By Tom Ichniowski
Buffalo Bills fans will be able to continue their tradition of tailgating at the new stadium. The Bills' new stadium, which is located in Buffalo, will have a large parking lot for fans to tailgate. The Bills' new stadium, which is located in Buffalo, will have a large parking lot for fans to tailgate.

End of an era in WNY sports

By Mike Harrington
The Bills' final game at Highmark Stadium marks the end of an era in Western New York sports. The Bills' final game at Highmark Stadium marks the end of an era in Western New York sports.

For McDermott, saying goodbye is far from easy

By Tom Ichniowski
Buffalo Bills head coach Rex Ryan says saying goodbye to the team is far from easy. Buffalo Bills head coach Rex Ryan says saying goodbye to the team is far from easy.

OUT ON A HIGH NOTE

Conclusion of the Bills' 35-8 win over the Jets on Sunday in the final regular-season game at Highmark Stadium.

ORDER TODAY!

BuffaloNewsStore.com

the BUFFALO NEWS store