

Dane County draws from savings

After the Great Recession, Dane County leaders worked to put more money in the county's reserves (shown in green below). As revenue growth slowed, county leaders increased their reliance on savings – shown in red – creating a structural deficit.

County reserves used, 2010-26

SOURCE: Dane County Department of Administration

BRANDON RAYGO