

A Little Bit of Music Helps the History Go Down

Connie Mason is a native of Carteret County and has worked as an oral historian, folklorist, and singer songwriter for the National Park service and the NC Maritime Museum. She is a recipient of the NC Brown-Hudson Folklore Award for her work in eastern NC.

Connie has performed at many other venues including the Smithsonian Folk Life Festival in Washington DC.

Lunch will be served

AUGUST 5
12PM-2PM

Admission $20

Members $15

1008 Arendell St
Morehead City, NC
(252) 247-7533

Facebook.com/
CarteretCountyHistorical Society
carterethistory.org