

Qualifying Complete for Oct. 12 Election

Campaign 2019 Underway

Oct. 12 Election
Sheriff
Sid J. Gautreaux III	R
Charles "Carlos" Jean	D
Mark Milligan	D
Clerk of Court
Donna Collins-Lewis	D
Doug Welborn	R
Assessor
Jonathan Holloway, Sr.	D
Brian Wilson	R
Coroner
Dr. Beau Clark	R
Dr. Rani Whitfield	D
District Judge Northern District - Div. A
Beau Brock	R
Tarvald Smith	D
District Judge Northern District - Div. L
Ronald "Ron" Johnson	D
William "Will" Jordan	D
"Trae" Welch	R
State Senate - District 6
Mack "Bodi" White	R
Rufus H. Craig	Libertarian

QUALIFYING — Sheriff Sid Gautreaux qualified for reelection Oct. 12. He was joined by his wife Suzi, Clerk of Court Doug Welborn, and Alfred Buckley of the East Baton Rouge Parish Sheriff's office.

Incumbents In Parishwide Races Face Challengers

BATON ROUGE — Qualifying ended Aug. 8 for the Oct. 12 election. In parishwide races, Sheriff Sid Gautreaux, a Republican, is favored over his two Democratic opponents, Carlos Jean and Mark Milligan.

Assessor Brian Wilson, a Republican, has drawn a challenge from Democrat Jonathan Holloway, Sr.

Clerk of Court Doug Welborn, a Republican and former Metro Councilman from Central, is opposed by Democrat Metro Council member Donna Collins-Lewis.

Perhaps the most highly-contested parishwide race is expected to be for Coroner between incumbent Republican Dr. Beau Clark and Democrat Dr. Rani Whitfield.

At the close of qualifying, two Central area legislators were reelected without opposition. Reps. Valarie Hodges (R-Watson) and Barry Ivey (R-Central) will have new four-year terms.

Sen. Bodi White (R-Central) drew opposition from attorney Rufus Hayes, who is running as a Libertarian

See QUALIFYING on Page 2

East Baton Rouge Parish Coroner Dr. Beau Clark qualified for reelection. He was accompanied by his wife Vanassa and their children.

East Baton Rouge Parish Assessor Brian Wilson qualified for reelection August 6. He will face reelection on Saturday, Oct. 12.

Qualifying for District Judge - (Left to right) Trae Welch and his family and attorney Ron Johnson in Division L; Beau Brock and City Judge Tarvald Smith in Division A.

DID YOU KNOW LOUISIANA HAS TWO ELECTIONS?
 An estimated 25% of the votes cast will come during Early Voting Sept. 28-Oct. 5
 The remaining 75% of the votes will be cast on Election Day Oct. 12.