

Douglas Charles Taylor

February 14, 1953 – September 2, 2025

Douglas Charles Taylor, 72, of Chino Hills and Cypress, California, passed away peacefully on September 2, 2025. He was born February 14, 1953, in Amityville, New York. He grew up in Houston, Texas, and graduated from Sterling High School in 1971. Douglas and his wife, Bev, moved to Chino Hills after they were married in 1979.

Doug served in the U.S. Navy aboard the U.S.S. Niagara Falls as an electronics technician and landing safety officer, touring Asia and the Pacific before his honorable discharge. He remained active in the American Legion Chino Post 299 and Los Alamitos Post 716. After his service, he worked in electronics and freight transportation until retiring in 2019.

In 1979, Doug married Beverly Locy. Together they shared 47 years of marriage and raised three children. A devoted husband, father, and grandfather, he cherished family gatherings, camping trips, cribbage, card games, and was always in attendance at his kids' and grandkids' events.

He is survived by his wife, Bev; children, Leslie Cook (Bret), Ryan Taylor, and Maggie Taylor Aherne; grandchildren, Cole, Catherine, Susie, and Charles; and siblings, Christina, Steven, Michael, Regina, Colleen, Peter Allen, and Danny. He was preceded in death by his parents and sister Janice.

A celebration of life will be held October 4, 2025, at 4 p.m. at American Legion Post 716, Los Alamitos. In lieu of flowers, the family encourages donations in Doug's memory to the American Legion, local youth sports programs, or your local library.
