

Darrin Wayne Venegas

June 14, 1962 – December 26, 2024

Darrin Wayne Venegas, 62, of Fort Mohave, Arizona passed away on December 26, 2024. He was born on June 14, 1962 in Chula Vista, California.

Darrin spent his early years in Norwalk, California. He moved to Chino and attended Ramona Jr. High and graduated from Don Lugo High School in 1981. After graduation he worked for Davis Industries for six years. Later he became a Teamster and worked for Yeager Construction as a large equipment operator. He achieved certification as a train conductor and retired from Skanska Construction ten years ago. After retiring, he purchased a yacht where he lived for several years and eventually settled in Fort Mohave, Arizona.

He always enjoyed the outdoors by boating or motorcycle. Darrin's favorite band was the Grateful Dead and was a self-proclaimed "Deadhead."

Darrin loved to laugh, joke around and pull pranks on people, and he was an animal lover. He rescued many dogs and cats over the years, which he called "his girls."

He was preceded in death by his mother Gloria Bentley, father Samuel Venegas, Stepfather Howard Bentley and sister Christine Van Hill.

A celebration of life will be held at 3 p.m. on Friday, February 7, 2025 at the American Legion, 13759 Central Ave., in Chino. The gathering will honor his vibrant life and joy he brought to those around him.
