

Marlene G Delgado

March 19, 1948 - May 28, 2025

Marlene Garcia Delgado, a cherished lifelong resident of Chino, passed away peacefully on May 28, 2025, at the age of 77. Born in San Bernardino on March 19, 1948, Marlene embraced life with a passion for music, dancing, cooking, and camping. Her love of the Chino community, including her participation in the Boys Republic annual Della Robbia wreaths in Chino, showcased her vibrant spirit and dedication to enriching the lives of those around her.

Marlene is survived by her devoted children: Michael Delgado of Chino, Margaret Bowers of Chino, and Raquel Delgado of Chandler, AZ (with spouse Javier Gonzalez). She also leaves behind her four cherished grandsons: Benjamin Bowers of Chino, William Bowers with his wife Rochelle of Gilbert, AZ; Joseph Gonzalez with his wife Ashley of Chandler, AZ; and Julian Gonzalez of Chandler, AZ, as well as her treasured great-grandson, Logan. Her loving siblings, brothers Ricardo and Joey and sister Stella, stand as a testament to her lasting legacy.

It is with deep love and remembrance that Marlene is also honored by those who went before her. Her former husband, Eduardo Delgado, and her beloved son, Eddie, both predeceased her, and their memories continue to live on through the remarkable legacy of love and kindness that Marlene instilled in all who knew her.

A funeral Mass in Marlene's honor will be held on June 27, 2025, at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church in Chino, followed by interment at Holy Cross Cemetery in Pomona. Family and friends are invited to a Celebration of Life reception at the American Legion in Chino, where cherished memories and heartfelt stories will be shared. In light of the expected attendance, we kindly request that services be attended only by guests ages six and older. Marlene Garcia Delgado's boundless compassion and generous heart have left an indelible mark on her community, inspiring all who knew her to carry forward her legacy of love and kindness.
