

Carlos V. Preciado

June 2, 1958 – July 7, 2026

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Carlos V. Preciado, who went to his heavenly home on July 7, 2026.

Carlos grew up in Chino, California, where he built a life surrounded by family, friends, and memories that would stay with him throughout his years. He was a devoted father, a beloved brother, and a friend to many. Carlos's greatest joy was his family. He leaves behind his daughter, Theresa, and his son, Louis, who will carry his love and memory with them always. The lessons he taught, the stories he shared, and the memories they created together will remain a lasting part of their lives.

An avid fisherman, Carlos loved spending time on the water. Fishing gave him a sense of peace and happiness, and it was a passion that reflected his appreciation for the simple pleasures in life, the open water, the outdoors, good company, and the anticipation of the next catch. Those who shared time fishing with Carlos will always remember those special days and the stories that came from them.

Carlos will be remembered for his love of family, his connection to the outdoors, and the many memories he created throughout his life. Though his chair may be empty and his fishing rod at rest, the impact he made on the people who loved him will never fade. He will be deeply missed by his children, his siblings, extended family, and friends.

May the waters always be calm, the skies always be clear, and may Carlos forever find the perfect fishing spot in heaven. Rest peacefully in Jesus' arms, Carlos. You will always be loved, always remembered, and never be forgotten.
