

Geraldine Reher

May 12, 1944 – April 20, 2026

Geraldine Reher, 81, of Chino, California, passed away on April 20, 2026, surrounded by her loved ones. Born May 12, 1944, in Eldon, Missouri, Geraldine was the beloved daughter of Everet and Vertie Parson. In 1956, her family moved to Chino, California, where she built a life rooted in love, faith, and community. She attended Richard Gird Elementary School and Chino High School, and later attended Mt. San Antonio College, forming lifelong memories and friendships.

Geraldine married her childhood sweetheart, James Reher, and together they raised two sons, Michael and James. Her life was a testament to love and dedication, always placing her family at the center of everything she did.

She had a deep love of reading and history and found great joy in sharing the word of God with others. Geraldine lived a life of quiet generosity, always giving of herself to those in need. Her kindness, faith, and gentle spirit touched all who knew her.

Geraldine will be remembered as a beautiful soul whose warmth, compassion, and unwavering faith left a lasting impact on everyone she encountered.

Geraldine is survived by her son, James Fenton Reher; her granddaughter, Brittany Freibott; and her great-grandchildren, Alex and Tristan.
