

Barbara Ann Jarrett

May 13, 1960 – January 5, 2025

Barbara Ann Ralph was born in Neenah, Wisconsin on May 13, 1960. She was the fourth of six children born to Thomas and Mary Ralph. The family lived in Wisconsin and Minnesota before settling in Southern California. Barbara had many jobs throughout her life, however her calling was being a loving wife and mother of three.

Anyone who had the pleasure of knowing Barbara would describe her as fun-loving, creative, generous, and the life of the party. She never failed to brighten up a room and made everything in life a little prettier just by her being there.

Early in life, Barbara worked in the Risk Management Department of St. Joseph's Hospital in Orange, California. After the birth of her children, she took time away from work to raise them, moving to Chino Hills in 1996, where she resided for 29 years. Upon her return to the workforce, Barbara worked as a librarian for the Chino Valley Unified School District.

Barbara passed away peacefully at home after a brief battle with cancer. She leaves behind her husband of 36 years Lamont, three loving sons Myles (Veronica), Grant (Elizabeth) and Adam, as well as two grandchildren, Elliott and Matilda.

Barbara also leaves behind four sisters, one brother and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many many dear friends.

