

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

April 23, 1962

Dear Mrs. Barnett:

I know that my delay in answering your letter is unconscionable, so I won't even spend the time deciding which of my file of excuses I am going to pull out.

Let me say simply that I am indeed interested in seeing that our discussion of having foreign correspondents visit Ludlow is carried to the point of good results. I am today seeing that the proper people write you to begin making preliminary arrangements for what I am sure will be a most valuable contribution to your community and to our efforts to achieve a greater measure of international understanding. I am hopeful that you will hear from someone very soon.

Sincerely yours,

Carl T. Rowan
Deputy Assistant Secretary
for Public Affairs

P.S. Surely by this time you have learned to twist.

February 28th, 1963.

Dear Mrs. Barnett,

Upon my return to Washington, I want to express my sincere appreciation for the most cordial hospitality extended to me during my visit to Cleveland last week-end.

I was deeply impressed by all of the extensive preparations and arrangements made by the members of Ludlow Community, which rendered our visit a most interesting and heart-warming experience. I look forward to informing other similar groups of the sincere efforts and devotion of your Community towards achieving a goal which is idealistic as well as realistic.

Will you be kind enough to act as my interpreter in thanking all of the people who opened their homes and hearts to us, particularly the doctor and his family, where Mrs. Sow and I had the pleasure of being their guests at dinner.

Please extend my best wishes and personal regards to Mr. Barnett.

Very sincerely yours,

Oumar Sow
Ambassador
