John Marconi

Just beware of falling furniture from [redacted] office. And if you need help you'll have to wait a few minutes until he finds his duty belt he doesn't bother to wear.

That is unless he's out for a very long private lunch with [redacted]... or a ride to Chagrin Falls together... Hope there are prenuptials in place..... Not like either of them have a history of infidelity or sleeping with co-workers 🤔

Maybe if Beachwood, Ohio says that they are an "objectively" well led city enough times it will become true, or someone will at least believe it.
