Important Update from the agencies of the Schultz Campus for Jewish Life

Dear ,

As you might have seen in the national news, emails were recently sent to several JCCs around the country which included an indication of possible bomb threats. This past weekend, we received a similar threat to our Shaw JCC and The Schultz Campus for Jewish Life.

Having faced similar threats in 2017, our national and local communities have protocols in place to respond to such scenarios, which we immediately executed.

Upon receiving the threat and in accordance with these protocols, we began working with our security and law enforcement partners at the Federal, state and local level. After a thorough investigation, their assessment was that there was not a known credible threat related to the emails to our JCC or any of the other institutions who received such a message.

Additionally, we are staying close to our network of community of federal, regional and local security directors who are valuable resources to us.

As always, our priority is the safety of all those who participate in activities or programs on The Schultz Campus for Jewish Life and in our local synagogues. We are grateful for the immediate and ongoing response from law enforcement and we will continue to work with our partners to ensure community safety.
