Presenter:

Dr. Jacob Oran

*General surgeon
Columbus General
Surgery*

In today's society of high technology, we often hear about robotic surgery — but what exactly is it?

Join Dr. Jacob Oran, general surgeon with Columbus General Surgery, as he explains how a surgeon uses this advanced technology tool to give you the highest quality of health care possible. Dr. Oran will also give you more information about this type of surgery and discuss the benefits and recovery time.

Attendees may choose to attend in person or via Zoom.
