

High-five kind of finish

Wednesday was a very busy day for the Huskers, who landed five additional recruits throughout the day.

8:45 a.m.

Caleb Tannor

The four-star outside line-backer from Stone Mountain, Georgia, kicks off the day by picking the Huskers over Auburn and Florida.

9:25 a.m.

Cam Taylor

Auburn made a late push for the Montgomery, Alabama, athlete, but Taylor dons the NU hat. Taylor is capable of playing on both sides of the ball.

10 a.m.

Willie Canty

Nebraska needed an offensive tackle in this class, and it got one when the Florida three-star (Rivals) picks the Huskers over Louisville.

1:50 p.m.

Maurice Washington

In front of a national TV audience, the four-star (247Sports) RB picks NU over Arizona State, giving NU another dynamic skill player.

3:45 p.m.

Andre Hunt

The three-star (Rivals) wide receiver becomes the 24th member of the class, picking the Huskers over San Diego State and Oregon State.
