"George H. W. Bush was elected President in 1988, the year I attended my first Republican County Convention. Having attended many Republican State Central Committee meetings since then, I know to win, we must be united as a party. Our federal delegation has done a tremendous job representing us over the years. I look forward to seeing them continue their work for us all," said Senator Rob Dover.

"I have worked closely with every member of the delegation over the years and I'm proud to support each of them for re-election," said Senator Lou Ann Linehan. "I know that they work every day to better Nebraska and the United States, and I look forward to them continuing to do so."

"2024 is a critical election year for Republicans in Nebraska and it is time for all of us to come together and support our candidates," said Senator Rita Sanders. "It is crucial that we work together to win elections so that we can protect our conservative values both here in Nebraska and in Washington D.C."
