

LORI DIAMOND

Mom, Musician, Advocate

Celebrating our HOMETOWN HEROES

Lori Diamond, a devoted mom, musician, and advocate for inclusion, is deeply involved in building community through the arts. She leads “Music Includes”, an inspiring group of performers of all ages and abilities who bring joyful, inclusive music to local audiences. Lori also contributes to the Northboro Porchfest Committee and the Northboro Cultural Council, supporting creative expression across the community. She co-hosts a monthly open mic at 19 Carter with her partner, Fred Abatelli, creating space for individuals to find their voice. Lori believes music connects heart, mind, and soul, bringing people together and forming meaningful, lasting relationships.
