at Farmers Mercantile Hall, 100 W Main Street in Garrison

Come hear the original music of this local music legend, which will include some blues and boogie woogie along with a bit of jazz and Americana. If you've ever heard Dan behind the keys, then you know when he plays, he brings a party!

Admission is FREE for this show in celebration of the June 9 nuptials of two music enthusiasts—building owner Nick Fisher and Vinton Newspaper Editor, Amy Stourac. All are welcome to join in the joy!

Shelly's Cakes in Dyersville will make a sweet appearance with a wedding cake to top off the delicious free will donation buffet provided by the Garrison Library Board.
