If you are
anywhere
in your journey with
substance
use disorder,

I want you to stop,
look around
and open your heart.

Revel in the abundance
of your existence.
See how small
substance use disorder
can be when sat next
to all that you are
or ever could be.

Fill your existence
with beauty, purpose
and a life of service.

And your substance
use disorder—
your history of addiction,
the things you
may have done
that you are not
proud of—will one day
be small enough
to deal with
while allowing you
space to live this life
of joy.

Hold on.

We are not the sum
of our scars but rather a beautiful mosaic of the life they hold together.
