★ ROUNDUP FOR DANN KIME GANGER BENEFIT ★

AUGUST 29TH, 2026

Starting at 4:30 p.m.
Waucoma Event Center

This past year has brought unexpected challenges for Dann Kime and his family. After experiencing severe back pain in late June and early July, a trip to the doctor revealed Dann had Stage 4 Neuroendocrine Carcinoma, a slow-growing cancer that had already spread throughout his body. Although there is no cure, the oncology department felt optimistic about Dann's length and quality of life. One of the most difficult moments came when Dann lost feeling in his legs in September due to tumors pressing against his spine. Emergency surgery successfully removed the tumors and relieved the pain, but it left him paralyzed from the waist down. Dann was finally able to return home to continue healing surrounded by family and friends. Since then, he has faced countless doctor visits, treatments, hospital stays, surgery, and further rehabilitation.
