Updated polling place reminders coming soon to Buchanan County voters’ mailboxes

SUBMITTED BY THE OFFICE OF BUCHANAN COUNTY AUDITOR AND COMMISSIONER OF ELECTIONS KRIS WILGENBUSCH

Buchanan County is working with the Iowa Secretary of State to send a postcard containing précised information to every registered voter in the county starting Wednesday, May 18. Under Iowa law, notices are required to be sent to impacted voters between 20 and seven days prior to the primary election and again prior to the general election.

“If your polling place changed due to redistricting, you’ll be getting a card in the mail informing you of the new location,” Secretary of State Paul Pate said. “We want all eligible Iowans to make their voices heard by voting this year, and it’s important to have a plan if you’re going to the polls on Election Day. Step one is registering to vote. Step two is making sure you’re registered to vote by submitting your registration on time prior to the general election.”

In Buchanan County, Secretary of State Paul Pate said the mailings were presented Tuesday, May 3, during a reception and awards ceremony at the Public Health Conference of Iowa in Ames.

“The health of all Iowans is enhanced through the leadership of service of so many dedicated professionals working in the public health sector and its related fields that support community health,” says Edith Parker, dean of the College of Public Health. “We are proud to honor Tai and to recognize the commitment these individuals have made to the health and safety of the people and communities in Buchanan County.”
