Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

Fifth Graders In 1939 Visit Local Industries

In 1939, the fifth graders in Miss Novie Almon's class at Gilbert Elementary School enjoyed a series of exciting adventures. They made plans, under Miss Almon's direction, to visit every industry existing in Lauderdale County at that time. It turned out that their plans were way too ambitious, but the students were able to visit a wide variety of local industries and to create a fine 73-page booklet, with drawings scattered throughout, which they entitled Lauderdale County Industries. A copy of the 85-year-old booklet still exists in the Florence City Schools Memorabilia Room in the Burrell-Slater School building on Cherokee Street. Most entries are written in third person, while others are written in first person. Here are a few lines from one first-person entry following the class's visit to Sally Ann's Bakery in Florence: "I am a loaf of bread made at Sally Ann's Bakery. I was made from hard wheat which grows in Kansas and Minnesota. I went through many a danger and would like to tell you something about it." The story proceeds with a detailed description of how the bakery made hundreds of loaves of bread each day and ends with these interesting words: "There are six trays in the oven while we're baking; together, they hold 250 loaves of bread. Forty pounds of coal are used [to heat the oven] while we're baking." It's fascinating to note that something as simple as a booklet composed and assembled by fifth graders and their teacher can become a valuable historical document reflecting a point in time of the culture of a community.

1. Barry Manilow, in 1974. Scott English wrote and originally released the song in 1971, calling it "Brandy." Manilow changed the song to "Mandy" so it wouldn't be confused with Looking Glass' "Brandy (You're a Fine Girl)."

2. James Ray, in 1962. George Harrison followed with a cover in 1987 both as a single and on his "Cloud Nine" album.

3. Edwin Starr. "Contact" and "War" were Starr's only No. 1 hits.

4. Belinda Carlisle after she left The Go-Go's.

5. "Eye of the Tiger," by Survivor, in 1982. The song was at the top of the chart for 15 weeks and was used as the theme song for "Rocky III" the same year. It then won a Grammy for Best Rock Performance by Duo or Group with Vocal.
