

Today
in brief

Red Land wins
state baseball title

SHIPPENSBURG (AP) — Bret Wagner pitched two-hit ball to lead Red Land to a 7-1 victory over previously-unbeaten Indian Valley and capture the PIAA Class AAA baseball championship Friday.

The loss dropped Indian Valley to 22-1. Red Land finished its season at 23-3.

Wagner (14-1) struck out seven and walked three while allowing only seven baserunners.

Teammate John Gill reached base all five times he came to bat, scoring twice and knocking in two runs.

Gill scored in the first on a throwing error, then Red Land got two more the second on Kyle Wagner's RBI single and a sacrifice fly by Matt Jones.

Gill hit an RBI single in the third and Red Land added another on an error.

Mike Hostetler scored Indian Valley's run in the sixth, following a Red Land error.

Hostetler had both Indian Valley's hits, doubling in the first and singling in the sixth.

Chris Freed (12-1) took the loss.

June 16, 1990 Sentinel

Clipped By:

frontdoor

Wed, Jun 12, 2019