The Sentinel
www.cumberlandlink.com

This year marks the 19th anniversary of our “Best Of” program and the fifth year for the “Best Of Cumberland County” contest. This year’s program also featured the highest level of participation to date - more than 3,600 local readers logged on, printed out, mailed in and ultimately voted for their favorite Cumberland County business. WOW!

If you were one of the 3,600 who participated, thank you! If you weren’t, then I encourage you to venture out in our local communities and support the businesses highlighted on these pages. Try a new restaurant, visit a new salon, or stop by that shop down the street. Locally owned businesses form the foundation of our communities and your personal and economic support make that possible.

I know every local business owner takes great pride in their business, just as I do with The Sentinel and I congratulate each and every one of you for your hard-work, determination and commitment to our local communities! Cheers!

Thank you

About our business: In 1919 in the small town of Orrstown, Pennsylvania, a group of community leaders saw the need to form a bank to meet the financial needs of the citizens of the town. More than 101 years later, Orrstown Bank has grown to be one of the most successful, influential community banks in the region while never losing sight of its original mission.

Today, Orrstown Bank is headquartered in Shippensburg, Pennsylvania and continues to provide a full range of consumer, business, and wealth management services to its neighbors. We get to know our clients and our clients know they can count on us. That's important to us. We greet you by name and are never too busy to take care of you.

Until 1981, Orrstown Bank only had one branch office. Since then, Orrstown Bank has grown to 31 banking offices and 3 loan production centers conveniently located throughout 8 counties in Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Now, with nearly $2.5 billion in assets, Orrstown Financial Services, Inc., which is the parent company of Orrstown Bank, is one of the largest independent community banks headquartered in the region and is publicly traded on the NASDAQ market under the symbol ORRF.
