

Journey to Independence
Honoring America's

250

YEARS

FAYETTE COUNTY

PENNSYLVANIA

The Daily Courier

In celebration of the country's 250th birthday, the Fayette County PA 250th has introduced Fionna Fayette and her friend, Quincy the Cat. Fionna was created as the children's ambassador. She's sharing stories of history in celebration of the country's 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. In the cartoon, created by the Fayette County Chamber of Commerce, Fionna and Quincy stop by The Daily Courier office to read a copy of the daily newspaper, which has been serving the area for more than 100 years.

Contest Rules:

1. Entrants must be 4-12 years old. Winners will be randomly drawn from two age groups. Age groups are 4-7 and 8-12.
2. Entries must be received by 4:00 pm, Thursday, February 12th. Winners will be announced in the paper on Wednesday, February 18th.
3. Mail or drop off entry in mail slot to:

Fionna Fayette Coloring Contest
The Daily Courier
127 W. Apple St.
Connellsville, PA 15425

4. Employee family members of The Daily Courier are not eligible.
5. Winners will be notified by phone.

Prizes:

The Daily Courier is awarding a $40 Bud Murphy's Gift Card to the winner from both age groups (4-7, 8-12).

Entry:

Please fill out the information below to submit with your entry.

Name:

Address:

Phone Number:

Age:

INTERNET YOU
CAN COUNT ON.
THE PEOPLE YOU CAN TRUST.

ARMSTRONG
KEEPING YOU CONNECTED

ARMSTRONG
RANKED #1
INTERNET SERVICE
SATISFACTION
2024 2X WINNER 2025

THE FIONNA FAYETTE COLORING CONTEST IS SPONSORED BY

ARMSTRONG